

Dr. Rajiv Sabherwal is the Edwin & Karlee Bradberry Chair and Department Chair of Information Systems in the Walton College of Business at the University of Arkansas, where he also served as Executive Director for Information Technology Research Institute and led the formation of a new Blockchain Center of Excellence. A long-time IEEE member, Rajiv served as the Editor-in-Chief of IEEE Transactions on Engineering Management for eight years. He has served as Member of the Advisory Committee for IEEE Technology and Engineering Management Society, Vice-Chair of the IEEE Ozark Section, and conference chair, program co-chair, or panelist on IEEE's and other prestigious conferences.

Rajiv has authored over a hundred refereed publications, including in prestigious journals such as Management Science, MIS Quarterly, Information Systems Research, Organization Science, and IEEE Transactions, published textbooks on knowledge management and business intelligence, and presented at conferences and universities worldwide. He has served as Senior Editor for Journal of Association of Information Systems and MIS Quarterly, and guest editor for Information Systems Research. He has served as Fulbright Research Chair, and is also a Fellow of the Association of Information Systems. He received Ph.D. in business administration from the University of Pittsburgh, Post-Graduate Diploma in Management from Indian Institute of Management Calcutta, and Bachelors in Engineering from Maulana Azad National Institute of Technology, Bhopal.