

Walter Buchanan is a Past Thompson Endowed Chair Professor at Texas A&M. He has served in professorial and administrative positions at Northeastern University, Oregon Institute of Technology, Middle Tennessee State University, University of Central Florida, and Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis, was an electronics engineer for Naval Avionics, a Navy engineering officer, an aerospace engineer for the Boeing and Martin Companies, as well as an attorney for the Veteran's Administration. He is a Life Fellow and served on the Board of Directors of both ASEE and NSPE, is a Fellow of ABET and IEEE, and is a Senior Member SME, and is a Past President of the Massachusetts Society of Professional Engineers. Buchanan is a member of the Board of Delegates of ABET, is on the editorial board of the Journal of Engineering Technology, has authored or co-authored over 250 publications, and has been a principal investigator for NSF grants. He is Past President of ASEE. He holds a B.S.E and M.S.E. from Purdue University, and a B.A., J.D., and Ph.D. from Indiana University. He is a registered P.E. in six states and a retired member of the Indiana State Bar.