Developing Nations Discount for IEEE Societies

Societies will follow IEEE e-membership discounts

IEEE offers an electronic membership option to new and renewing members who reside in countries where the per capita Gross National Income (GNI) is US$15,000 or less, as determined by the data published by the World Bank. Though published annually, IEEE uses a three-year average of the GNI for each country to determine eligibility.

Countries that participate in this discount are available here:

<https://www.ieee.org/membership/join/emember-countries.html>

Societies who are offering the discount will offer the reduced price from their Society dues.

Developing Nations: 50% discount

Low-Income Economies: 80% discount

Education Society Member User Experience

Purchasing Education Society and IEEE Membership - Non Developing Nations

IEEE Education Society Membership

Focuses on the theory and practice of education and educational technology involved in the effective delivery of domain knowledge of all fields within the scope of interest of IEEE. The Society sponsors/co-sponsors various conferences throughout the year, including the Frontiers in Education Conference.

IEEE Societies provide access to current information, opportunities to network with peers, and enhancement of the worldwide value of your profession. If you are not an IEEE member, you may wish to join as an Affiliate at the non-IEEE member price noted at right.

This Society participates in the Developing Nations discount program.
